2. Mobile telephone bill
3. Water bill
4. Electricity bill
5. Property tax receipt
6. Bank statement
7. Passport

5 MYTHS ON VOTING

1. I am registering to get my voter ID card

When you register to vote, you are registering only to get your name included in the electoral rolls (also called voter list) and NOT to get a voter ID card. To get a voter ID card, you have to register separately.

Remember, on election day, only 2 things are mandatory for you to be allowed to vote:

- ✓ Your name should be present on voter list
- ✓ You should have a valid IDENTITY PROOF. Voter ID card is only one of the valid proofs.

2. I can vote only from the place of my birth / permanent residence

As a citizen of India greater than 18 years of age, you are eligible to vote from any place in India, provided you have been an ORDINARY RESIDENT i.e. you have been staying at your current address for at least 6 months or more.

3. I do not have a valid ADDRESS PROOF document to register for voting

It is not essential for the address proof document to have your name. It needs to have only the address of the place where you are staying. You can use address proof document on the name of your parents, relatives, friends etc. with whom you are staying.

4. As a voter, I can vote in 2 kinds of elections – State Assembly Elections & General Elections

As a registered voter you can vote in more than 2 elections! Besides General and Assembly elections, you can also vote in your Local Body Elections or Municipal Corporation Elections, as called in cities.

5. Registering to Vote is a cumbersome process

Earlier perhaps, but not any more! With Jaago re! One Billion Votes, not only can you fill and submit your registration form easily, you can also get to know when your name gets on the voter list.

And all of this from the convenience of your home!
